SPECIAL LECTURE

ENGLISH-MEDIUM INSTRUCTION (EMI) AND THE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF UNIVERSITIES

Insights from Korea for Japan

UNIST (Ulsan National Institute of Science and Technology) was the first university in Korea to implement 100% English-only instruction. In this special lecture, two UNIST faculty members will share their perspectives on how EMI policies are implemented and experienced in practice.

December 18, 2026
(Friday)

10:45 - 13:00
(Doors open 10:30)

A15-130
(Nakamozu Campus)

SPEAKERS

Jinsook Choi
Professor
School of Liberal Arts, UNIST
Linguistic anthropologist

Bradley Tatar
Associate Professor
School of Liberal Arts, UNIST
Cultural anthropologist

Everyone is welcome!
Faculty, students, and anyone interested are encouraged to attend.

PROGRAM

10:45 - 10:50	Opening Remarks (5 min)
10:50 - 11:30	Presentation 1 (40 min) Jinsook Choi Education under the Policy of English as an Official Language at UNIST
11:30 - 12:10	Presentation 2 (40 min) Bradley Tatar An International Faculty Member's Experience of the Policy of English as an Official Language
12:10 - 12:20	Break (10 min)
12:20 - 13:00	Q&A Session (40 min) Discussion with all participants

Supported by:
FY2026 Strategic Research Promotion Project
(Grant-in-Aid for Public University Research)

Organizer / Contact:
Jinsuk Yang
(yang@omu.ac.jp)

Registration
Scan the QR code to register.