Outline of Graduate School of Rehabilitation Science

This graduate school aims to realize new rehabilitation that is more closely related to daily life, supporting independent social participation in the community, beyond the boundaries of conventional rehabilitation medicine such as the treatment, recovery and prevention of progression of disabilities. Comprising the two departments of Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy, our Graduate School of Rehabilitation Science seeks to cultivate human resources who possess advanced research capabilities, with the goal of establishing new rehabilitation studies covering all stages from health maintenance/promotion, illness and disability prevention, to treatment, recovery, and social rehabilitation/participation.

In this graduate school, multiple faculty members will provide academic guidance according to the research purpose, abilities and aptitudes of the students, and the faculty members will cooperate to provide research guidance under a collective guidance system. If you would like to apply to our graduate school, before undergoing the application, you should consult with the faculty member under whom you wish to study regarding your research after admission.

1) Department of Physical Therapy

The Department of Physical Therapy undertakes a broad range of basic to clinical research, including motor control, neurophysiology, musculoskeletal physical therapy, cardiopulmonary physical therapy, support for sports for the disabled, geriatric rehabilitation, women's health, and preventive physical therapy.

Areas of concentration in this departments are Neuroanatomy, Motor Control, Motor Function Development, Motor Function Recovery, Functioning in Older Adults, Health Promotion, and Social Participation Support.

2) Department of Occupational Therapy

The Department of Occupational Therapy undertakes a wide range of basic to clinical research to support daily living, which include higher brain function, post-apoplectic upper limb function, remote rehabilitation, severe dementia, developmental disorder, intractable diseases, cancer, cognitive decline prevention for the elderly, and occupational science.

Areas of concentration in this department are Cognitive / Conduct Disorders, Mental / Behavioral Disorders, Developmental Period Functioning, Motor Function / Motor Recovery, and Nursing Care Prevention Technology.

- (1) P4 [3] Application Procedure 1. During the application period, you are required to complete all procedures: application registration, payment of the application fee, printing of the application confirmation slip and address label, and submission of application documents (sent by registered mail within the document submission period).
First of all, please note that the application procedure is completed upon registration of the application and payment of the application fee. Secondly, the application confirmation and address labels can be printed after payment of the application fee and other fees has been completed.
- (2) Input of Applicant Information
Please enter an address where you can receive mail when sending the Entrance Examination Card. If your address has changed since the announcement of successful applicants, please contact Admissions, Student Group, Habikino Campus Office (E-mail:gr-hab-rehabilitation@omu.ac.jp) or submit a change of residence notification to the post office.
- (3) You cannot change the details in the application once registration has been completed. If you notice a mistake before paying the examination fee, please do not pay the fee, and begin registration again from the beginning. Additionally, you are not permitted to cancel an application once it has been accepted.
- (4) The “Application Receipt Number” listed on the application confirmation slip is not the examination number.
- (5) We cannot accept incomplete Applications for Admission. When registering the application, please ensure you include a contact number and email address where you can be reached, as we may contact you if the application is incomplete.
- (6) We may ask you to submit other documents as necessary. In that case, please follow our instructions promptly.
- (7) Application fee once paid will not be refunded, except for the following reasons
  - Reasons for possible refund:
    - (1) If you paid the application fee but did not apply.
    - (2) When the application documents have been rejected owing to issues such as incomplete information.
    - (3) When the application fee is paid in duplicate.
    - (4) When a Japanese Government-funded student enrolls in the graduate school.

Note: Please contact the Admissions Office, Student Group, Habikino Campus Office (E-mail:gr-hab-rehabilitation@omu.ac.jp) within one month of the last day of the application submission period for information to claim a refund in the case of items (1) through (3). For item (4), the refund will be made after enrollment.

6. Entrance Examination Card

For those who have completed the application procedure, an email will be sent to the email address registered at the time of online application with information regarding the “Entrance Examination Card” and “Instructions for the Examination.” Please click the URL in the email and enter the user ID and password you registered on the online application site. Print your Entrance Examination Card on A4 size white paper and be sure to bring it with you on the day of the examination (the Entrance Examination Card will not be mailed).

If you do not receive an email one week before the examination date, or if there are any errors in the information on your Entrance Examination Card, please contact Admissions, Student Group, Habikino Campus Office. (E-mail:gr-hab-rehabilitation@omu.ac.jp)

7. Considerations for Examination

Second round of applications: [No later than] January 15, 2025

- The application should be sent by mail by the end of the application period. However, if the documents reach after the deadline, they must be postmarked by September 20 for the first round of applications, and January 10 for the second round of applications (postmarked at the originating office in Japan and sent by registered express mail only). (If the application is sent from overseas, it is valid as long as it arrives in Japan by the last day of the application period. Please be sure to send by a mode that can be tracked). The application will be accepted as a "Letter of Acceptance."
- Successful applicants will be notified of the details of the procedure.
- Applicants who do not complete the Enrollment Procedures will be treated as having declined admission.

[7] School fees (Enrollment fee, Tuition fee, etc.)

The current schedule for school fees (enrollment fee, tuition fee, etc.) is as follows, all of which are subject to revision. Please be sure to check the details in the enrollment documents sent to successful applicants.

Note: No refund will be issued for payments already made.

1. Enrollment fee: "Osaka residents and their children": 282,000 yen, "Others": 382,000 yen

"Osaka residents and their children" applies to the following persons who have completed the prescribed procedures and have been selected.

Eligibility: Either the applicant or his/her parents, who appear on the same family register as the applicant, must have been continuously registered as a resident in Osaka Prefecture since at least one year prior to the date of enrollment (April 1, 2024, or earlier in the case of applicants admitted in spring 2025). The same requirement applies to applicants who do not have Japanese citizenship.

Required documents: Certificate of residence (for all eligible persons), certificate of all items of the family register (for those who need it), and other official documents

*Please obtain the certificate within one month of the date of enrollment procedures.

Details will be provided at the time of submitting the enrollment documents.

- The enrollment fee must be paid through the designated bank transfer form by the date of the enrollment procedure.
- The enrollment procedure is considered complete only with the payment of the enrollment fee. Please complete the enrollment procedures after payment.

- The enrollment fee is non-refundable for any reasons
- The university will not postpone the payment of the entrance fee.

2. Tuition [annual amount] 535,800 yen (to be paid after enrollment)

- Tuition and fees are to be paid by direct debit from the registered account every half year (first and second semester).
The date of withdrawal is May 27 for the first semester, and October 27 for the second semester.
If the debit date falls on a holiday of a financial institution, the next business day will be considered the debit date.
- If tuition fees are revised during the student's enrollment, the revised amount will apply.
- Tuition fee amounts and withdrawal dates for the relevant year may differ from those listed above for tuition reduction and exemption applicants and long-term course students.

3. Other

- (1) Separate fees are required to join various organizations.
- (2) Expenses for traveling between campuses (transportation, etc.) may be required.
- (3) Preparation of personal laptop computer (required)

In addition to registering for classes, viewing grades, and exchanging various other communication, classes will also be conducted using computers, specifically to distribute materials and submit assignments using electronic files as far as possible. We request new students to keep their laptop computers ready by the time classes begin.

The required specifications for laptop computers are available on the University's website.
